[THE THREE NUNS]

Three Nuns were attending a Cubs baseball game. Three men were sitting directly behind. Because their habits were partially blocking the view, the men decided to badger the Nuns hoping that they'd get annoyed enough to move to another area.

In a very loud voice, the first guy said, "I think I'm going to move to Utah. There are only 100 Nuns living there."

Then the second guy spoke up and said, "I want to go to Montana. There are only 50 Nuns living there."

The third guy said, "I want to go to Idaho. There are only 25 Nuns living there."

One of the Nuns turned around, looked at the men, and in a very sweet and calm voice said.

[WHY DON'T YOU GO TO HELL. THERE AREN'T ANY NUNS THERE!"]

[BIG SIR RON INZERILLO SAYS----456-1814]

To all the SIRS members who missed our Ladies Day Picnic and Golf, you missed a great day. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the organizers and volunteers for making this event possible. First, a big thanks to Little Sir Maynard Rodland, who organized the event and also special thanks to Jim Smalling, Mike Combs, Vince Damyranovich and his wife Maria (great chili!). Jim, Mike and Vince have willingly volunteered over the past few years to setup, cook and clean up afterwards. Jim has now refined his picnic skills to a science.

Bob Bone has put together the golf format, set the prize money, and handicapped the cards. His ongoing efforts throughout the year to maintain our handicap system as well as post scores and prepare the score cards is instrumental in making our golfing activity such a success.

Last, but not least, thanks to the rest of the usual suspects, who are always willing to help out in any way, at any time/
In closing, I hope we continue this tradition in future years.

[HE'S MY BROTHER]

Two young boys walked into a pharmacy one day, picked out a box of tampons and proceeded to the checkout counter.

The man at the counter asked the older boy, "Son, how old are you?"

"Eight," the boy replied.

The man continued, "do you know what these are used for?"

The boy replied, "not exactly, but they aren't for me. They're for him. He's my brother. He's four. We saw on TV that if you use these you would be able to swim and ride a bike. Right now, he can't do either.
