[Subject: And then the fight started]

My wife and I were setting at a table at my high school reunion, and I kept starting at a drunken lady swigging her drink as she sat alone at a nearby table. My wife asked, 'Do you know her?' 'Yes,' I sighed, 'she's my old girlfriend. I understand she took to drinking right after we split up those many & years ago, and I hear she hasn't been sober since' 'My god!' says my wife, 'Who would think a person could go on celebrating that long?'

And then the fight started...

[Subject: And then the fight started!]

My wife and I are watching Who Wants To Be A Millionaire. While we were in bed, I turned to her and said, “Do you want to have sex?”

“No,” she answered.

I then said, “Is that your final answer?”

She didn’t even look at me this time, simply saying “Yes.”

So I said, “Then I’d like to phone a friend.”

And then the fight started....

[Next fight]

Saturday morning I got up early, quietly dressed, made my lunch grabbed the dog, and slipped quietly into the garage. I hooked up the boat up to the truck, and proceeded to back out into a torrential downpour. The wind was blowing 50 mph, so I pulled back into the garage, turned on the radio, and discovered that the weather would be bad all day.

I went back into the house, quietly undressed, and slipped back into bed.

I cuddled up to my wife’s back, now with a different anticipation, and whispered, “The weather out there is terrible.”

My loving wife of 10 years replied, ‘Can you believe my stupid husband is out fishing in that?’
And that’s how the fight started.

[HOLE IN ONE CONTEST]

Since Jim Smalling copped the Hole-in-funds ($99) last month, we once again need to “replenish” it.

“Flash” (Gordon) Carlson has graciously agreed to collect the new funds ($1) at our July meeting. He will be stationed at one of the tables in the foyer for you to sign up (no checks, please!). The new Hole-in One contest will then begin with the August tournaments. This gives everyone approx 3 weeks to “get in on the action” before it actually begins. Where can you get offs the pay close to 100 to 1 ?. The odds are too great to pass up, even if you’re a higher handicapper like myself!!. If you can’t make the meeting, you can contact us to arrange to enter. Your entry will begin when your contribution is accepted.

[THE RULES OF GOLF]

[Breaking Ties]

[USGA Rule 33-6]

The committee must announce the manner, day, and time for the decision of a halved match or of a tie, whether played on level terms or under handicap. (NOTE: Match play is halved and stroke play is tied.)

[USGA Appendix 1]

11. How to decide ties

Rule 33-6 empowers the Committee to determine how and when a halved match or a stroke play tie is decided. The decision should be announced in advance.

[NOTE:] There are a number of recommended formats (no mandatory ones)- including an 18 hole playoff. None are feasible for our SIR 93 club. We follow Rule 33-6 in that we use stroke handicaps and have announced, in advance, our standard procedure (stroke play on handicap holes). Tie breakers are shown in the reported Results (bulletin and website) by a (hole #) after the name of the winner. See example below.

Jefferson and Madison tied at 71 in Flight B, and Jefferson won the third place tie breaker on handicap hole #2. Adams, J.Q. won the tie breaker for 6th place on handicap hole #4. The (4) indicates that there is at least one other player tied with the same score (76) whose name(s) os/are not included, because, at best, he/they placed 7th or higher.

[FLIGHT B]

Washington 68, Adams, J. 69, Jefferson (2) 71, Madison 71, Monroe 74, Adams, J.Q. (4)

[EVENT PRIZE POINTS]

Points are awarded for six places in each Flight of each event ad follows: 1st, 4 pts, 2nd, 3 pts, 3rd, 2 pts, 4th, 1 pt, 5th, 0.5 pt, 6th, 0.25 pt.

Each event's low net medalist receives 2 additional points.

The dollar value of each point is determined by the Committee at the end of the year (value depends on finances); the last several years each point was worth $4.00.

[THE LADY GOLFER]

[A group of male lawyers lived and died for their Sat. morning round of golf. On transferred to another city. It wasn't the same without him.

A new woman lawyer joined their law firm. She overheard the guys talking about their golf round. She said, "You know, I used to play on my golf team in college, and I was pretty good. Would you mind if I joined you next week?" The three guys looked at each other. Not one of them wanted to say 'yes' but she had them on the spot. Finally, one man said it would be okay, but they would be starting early ---at 6:30 AM.

He figured the early tee-time would discourage her. The woman said this may be a problem, and asked if she could be up to 15 minutes late. They rolled their eyes, but said okay. She smiled and said, "Good, I'll be there at 6:30 or 6:45." She showed up at 6:30 sharp, and beat all three of them with an eye-opening 2-under par per round. she was fun and pleasant person, and the guys were impressed. Back at the clubhouse, they congratulated her and invited her back the next week. She smiled, and said, "I'll be there at 6:30 or 6:45.

The next week she again showed up at 6:30 sharp. Only this time, she played left-handed. The three lawyers were incredulous as she still beat them with on even apr-round, despite playing with her off-hand. They were totally amazed, but wondered if she was trying to make them look bad by beating them left-handed.

They couldn't figure her out. She was again very pleasant and didn't seem to be purposely showing them up. They invited her back again. Bit each man harbored a burning desire to beat her game.

The third week, the guys had their game faces on, but this time, she was 15 minutes late, which made the guys irritable. This week the lady lawyer played right-handed, and narrowly beat all three of them.

The men mused that her late was due to petty gamesmanship on her part. However, she was so gracious, and so complimentary of their strong play, they couldn't hold a grudge.

Back in the clubhouse, all three guys were shaking their heads. This woman was a riddle no one could figure out. They had a couple of beers, and finally, one of the men asked point blank, "how do you decide if you're gong to golf right-handed or left-handed?"

The lady blushed, and grinned. "That's easy," she said. "When my Dad taught me to play golf, I learned I was ambidextrous. I like to switch back and forth. When I got married in college, I discovered my husband always sleeps in the nude. From then on< I developed a silly habit. Right before I left in the morning for golf practice, I would pull the covers off him. If his you-know what pointing to the right, I golfed right-handed; if it was pointed to the left, I golfed left-handed.

The guys on the team thought this was hysterical. Astonished at this bizarre information, one of the guys shot back, "But what if it's pointing straight up in the air?"

She said, " then, I'm fifteen minutes late."]
