[SOMETHING TO CROW ABOUT]

[MEETING DATE APRIL 19TH 2010]

[DEADLINE FOR THE MAY 2010 BULLETIN IS
FRIDAY APRIL 23RD 2010]

[BIG SIR MAYNARD “ROD RODLAND SAYS-]

It is not too late for that friend and/or acquaintance to join SIR 93, we play on numerous good courses which should appeal to almost any golfer. By the way, have you noticed the improvement in the quality of our luncheon meal? Our new chef is making a concerted effort to provide a variety of foods that hopefully will please your taste buds. If you have any comments or questions please let me know.

Next month SIR 93 is having its annual Ladies Day Golf/Picnic. I have taken part the last three years, and it has been a great day of golf followed by an outstanding picnic. Sign up your pairings early to insure a tee time as space is limited. With summer approaching, we in SIR 93 are going to be enjoying many days of golfing. The trip to Carson City in June promises to be a great time of golf, food and gaming. Hope to see you there.

[THIS MONTHS PROGRAM]

Ever notice there are a lot of similarities in good golfer’s swings? Is your swing reminiscent of Arnold Palmer’s or Tiger Wood’s? Could it be? Pat Carroll, master club fitter and golf instructor at the Golf Academy is our featured speaker this month, answering your questions in case your game isn’t quite what you had hoped. Is this your opportunity to learn how to amaze your friends and win those $2.00 Nassaus? See you there and no video recordings please.

[OUR APRIL LUNCH WILL BE TRI-TIPS]

Preferred partners should only be listed in the right-most column. If you or your group has a preferred playing time, that information should be listed in the appropriate column; if left blank, it is assumed there is no preference of playing time. Every attempt will be made to accommodate requested playing times, or as close to a requested time as possible, given there are often duplicate requests for the same playing time."
